New York's Mayor Has Trying Time Getting Home Through the City Streets.

PHILADELPHIA IS SNOWBOUND

Cattle Are Dying on Western Plains and Railway Systems Are Tied Up.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, January 15 .- This city is in the grip of the worst storm of the winter. During the past twentyfour hours twelve inches of snow fell. Many persons have been frozen to death and suffering, especially among the poor people, is intense.

Mayor Gaynor, while on his way home with a friend, became blinded by the driving snow and lost his way. Both the mayor's ears were frozen while his companion was blown from a trestle and sustained a broken leg and there were, are still in the tax office, was introduced and promptly adopted other injuries which, it is feared may
